Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,7 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kessler et al. (US 6,119,864). Kessler discloses a tubular body 128 with arch openings 128 for engaging two flexible prongs 124 on the plug-in body in Figures 2A-3E. A hole 130 is formed on the plug-in-body. A small article mounting plate portion is most of the base 112 and the base below a small article holding portion. The first compartment or pocket above area 116 is the small article holding pocket. The small article holding portion on two sides thereof defines the small holding pocket thereinbetween. Similarly, Figures 4A-8B show an alternative embodiment wherein a tubular body 120 with apertures 128 engages the prongs 124,126 of the plug-in-body.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2 and 5 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kessler et al.. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the case out of transparent synthetic resin material , since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

5. Claim 4 is finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kessler et al. in view of Official Notice. Official Notice is taken of the conventional use of a protrusion and recess in a top and bottom portions, respectively, of a case or container to ensure the two portions engage each other in a closed position. It would therefore obvious in view of Official Notice to provide this type of engagement to prevent inadvertent separation.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
